BOB CATS

W.D.'s sexiest???

Every dog has his day.

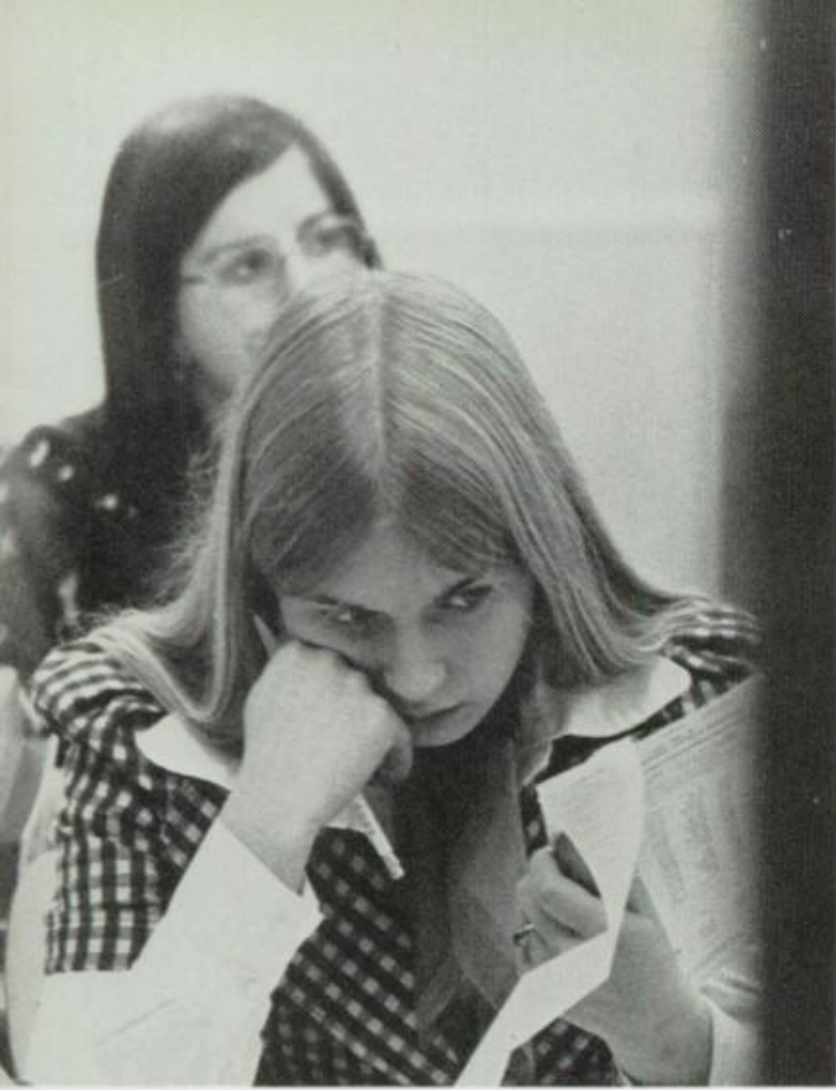

Tweet. Tweet. I can fly!

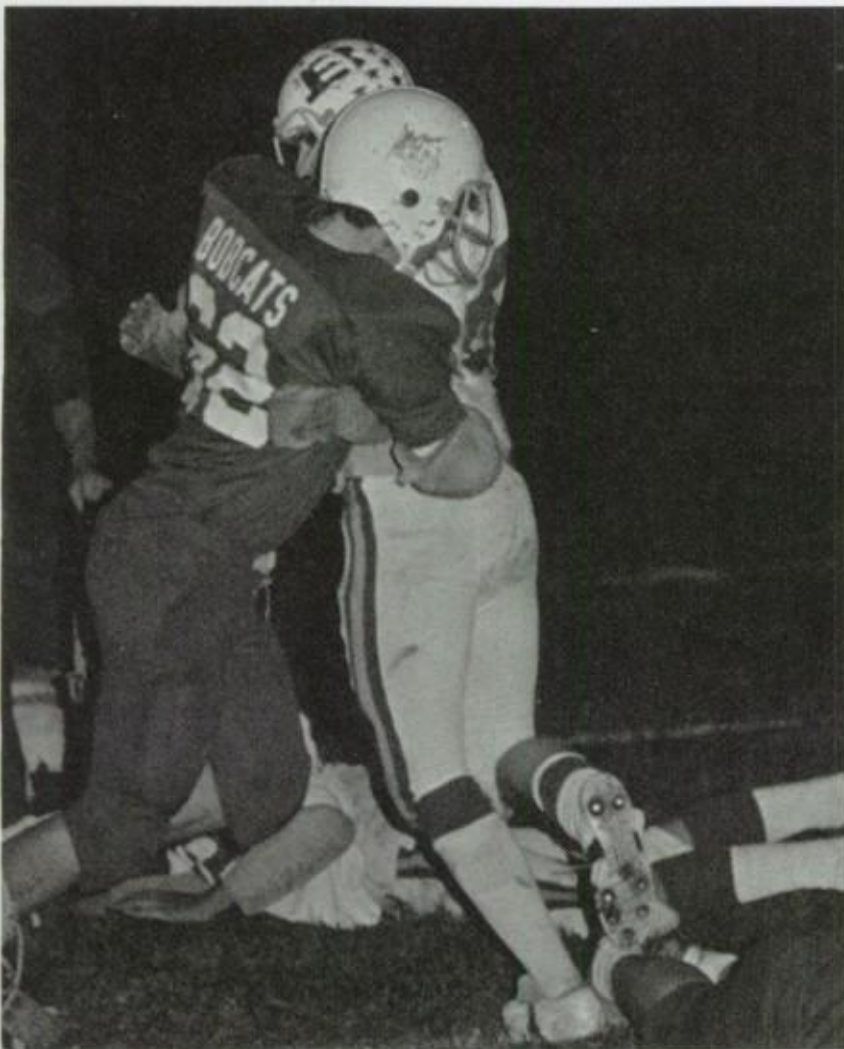

Gee, I hope it's right this time!

Are my shoes in there?

SCHOOL DAYS

We've got to stop meeting like this!

Is it over yet?

Mooove 'em out!

Up your nose with a rubber hose!

Come back here you dumb ball!

Gees Jane!

LAZY DAYS

MEMORIES

What do you mean, they're not getting clean!

Take it easy doc!

I wonder what's on TV tonite.

LINGER ON

"How's this for beauty?"

"Give my regards to Broadway!"

"I wonder what's for lunch today."

"Let's give them more of this prune whip."

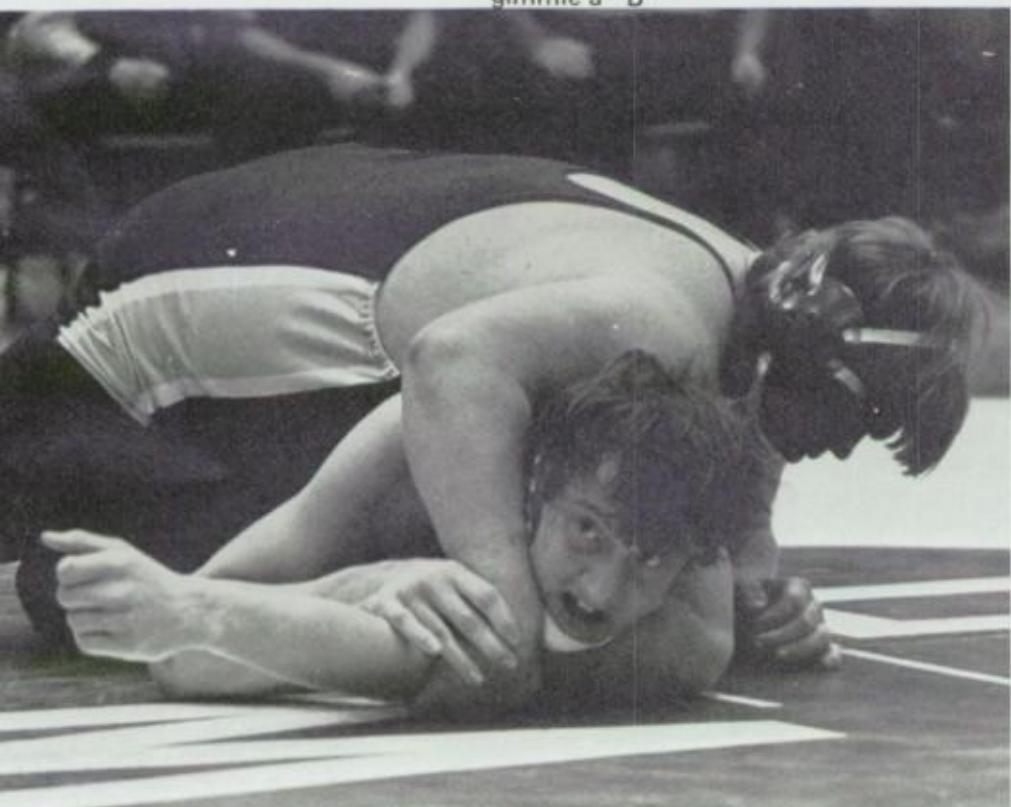

"Let's hear it for prune whip!"

gimmie a "B"

What do I do now coach?

"Who pulled that fire alarm?"

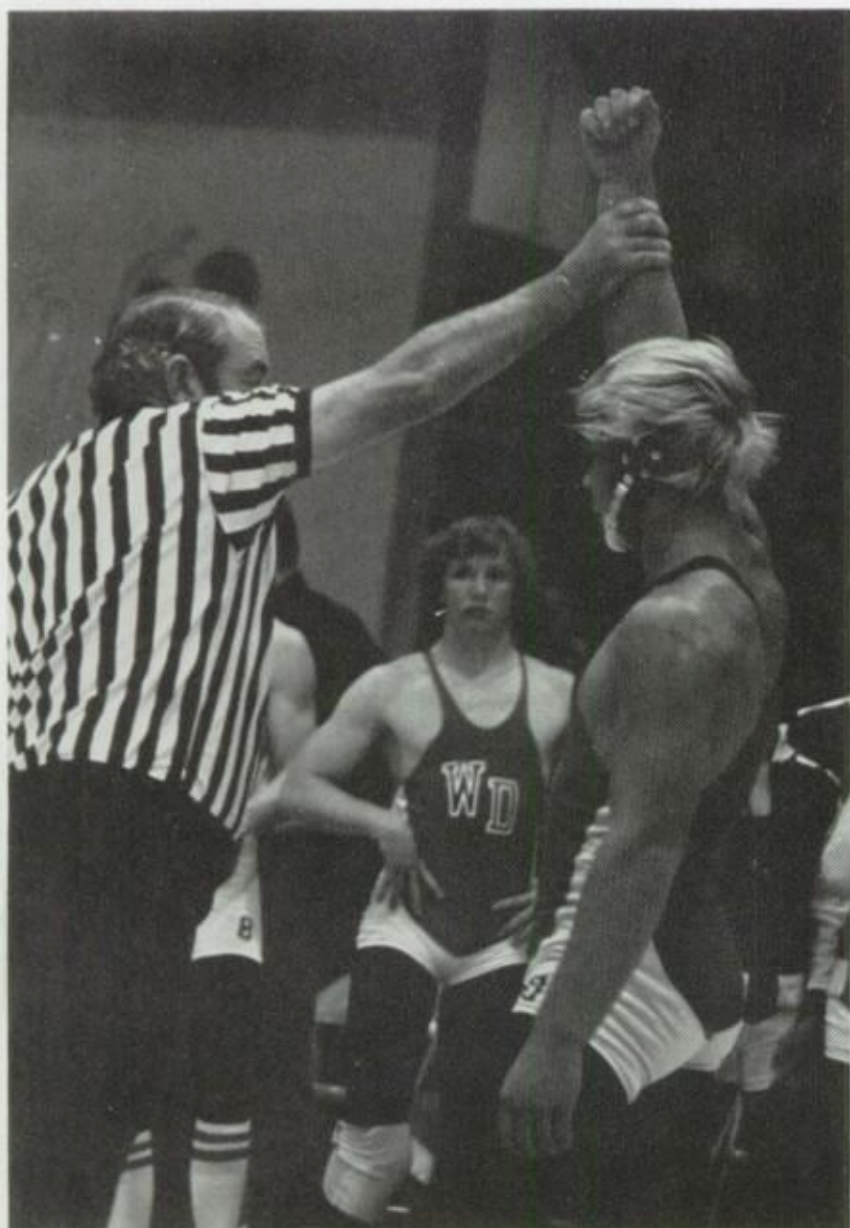

Don't come any closer or I'll shoot!

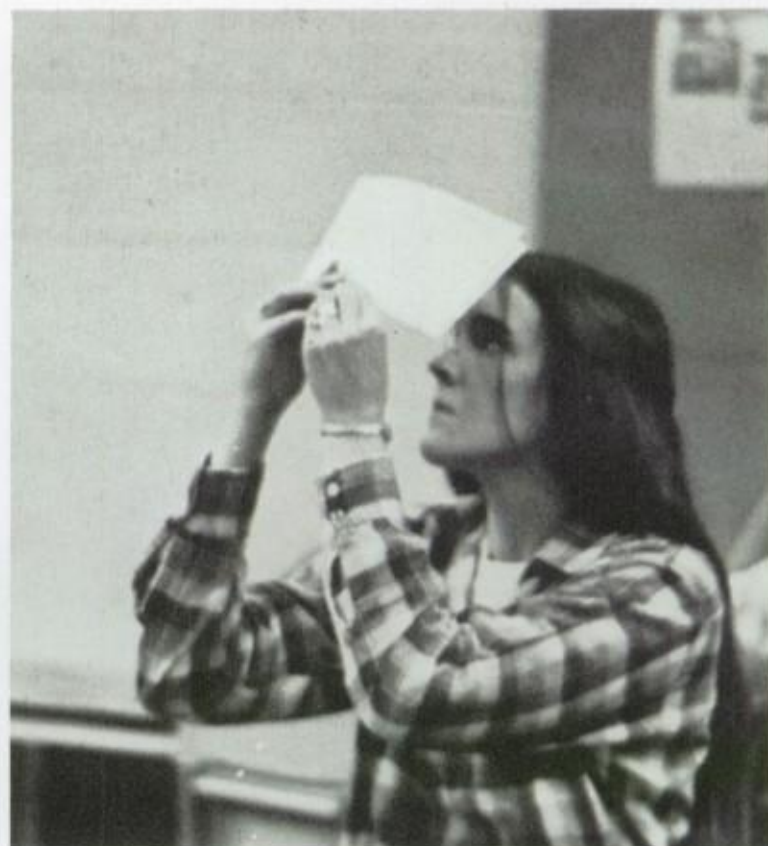

So THAT'S what school does to ya!

ACTIVITIES

Chalk up another one.

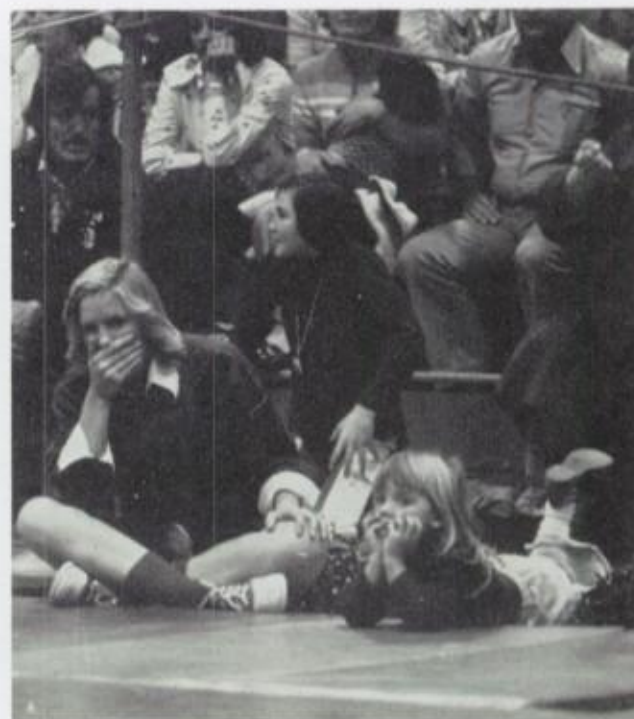

I've just got to find out this grade before Dad does!

You called?

Oh no—I forgot to use Scope.

MAKE SCHOOL LIFE MORE ENJOYABLE

What d'ya know—we made it!

... almost!

STATE OF IOWA SCHOLARS

To qualify for the National Honor Society, students must have at least a 3.2 average, and only juniors and seniors are eligible. In addition to requirements in grades, the members are judged by the faculty on leadership, scholarship, character, service, and how they participate in each of these. In order to remain in the National Honor Society throughout high school, the members must maintain their 3.2 average.

Advisor for the Western Dubuque National Honor Society is Mr. Don Offerman.

Students in the OE program work a minimum of 15 hours in an office in Dubuque, Dyersville, Epworth, Farley or Placid. They receive credit for this experience as well as a salary from the employer. The girls take their required courses toward graduation in the mornings and acquire on the job office experience each afternoon. There are nineteen senior girls enrolled in Office Education at Western Dubuque.

STATE PARLIAMENTARIAN

Voting delegates of approximately 70 Office Education Chapters in Iowa elected the 1975-76 state officers. Peggy Leibfried of Western Dubuque was selected to serve as state parliamentarian. As a member of the Executive Board, she will represent Iowa at the National Conference in Topeka, Kansas, May 1-5.

HOMECOMING - '75

Homecoming festivities began with spirit week as each grade level did different things to show their spirit. On Wednesday evening of Homecoming week a "Powder Puff" football game was held with the Juniors and Sophomores defeating the Freshmen and Seniors 6 to zip. After the game everyone rushed down to the bon fire being held on the basefield field. Everyone participated in the cheers and enjoyed the skits that were prepared.

Excitement heightened on Friday and was climaxed with the defeat over Beckman 12 to zip. The excitement wasn't over until we chose our Homecoming Queen for 1975: Donna Liebfried. She was crowned at half-time by the 1974 Homecoming Queen, Leslie Bildstein. The Bobcat Marching Band provided the half-time entertainment. Saturday night brought the Homecoming week to an end with the traditional homecoming dance. Music was provided by Lavender Hill.

Western Dubuque's success in 75 was due to a fine team effort and balance. The two J.V. trophies won at North Hi of West Union and Linn-Mar reflect on the team's fine balance.

We had a total of 20 runners competing this year and have about 10 returning lettermen back for next season. Seniors Dave Peterson and Jerry Spoden were the captains of the 75 team which finished second in the E.I.C., fourth of thirteen at West Union, fourth of nineteen at Fillmore, third of twelve at Linn-Mar, fifth of eleven at Manchester and third of ten at the Bobcat Invitational.

Junior Tim Clements and Sophomore Rick Rave won medals at all six invitational W.D. ran in this year.

The West Dubuque Chapter of Future Farmers of America have been involved in many activities this school year, and have done well in various contests. In the Livestock and Meats contest that was held at Waterloo, the Livestock team received third place. In the Ag-Mechanics contest that was held at Calmar, the West Dubuque team placed first.

In state contests that were held at Iowa State University and the Iowa State Fair, the Ag-Mechanics team placed 6th out of 73 teams that participated. The Livestock Judging team received a Gold Rating for their efforts.

The Waterloo National Dairy Cattle Congress provided competition for the Western Dubuque FFA Chapter in Dairy Judging and Dairy Products Contest. Both teams received a Gold Rating at the State level.

CHORAL GROUPS

There are three major choral groups at Western Dubuque: the Freshman Choir, the Bobcat Chorale and the Concert Choir. These groups and various small ensembles presented concerts throughout the school year for the public. Many of the vocal music students participated in the state solo and ensemble contest, local choral festivals and the annual spring musical. Vocal music activities are under the direction of Miss Jeannie Larson.

BOBCAT MARCHING BAND

The 175 member Bobcat Marching Band won three 1st place awards in competitive marching events, in 1975. The Bobcats took 1st place in the Eastern Iowa Band Festival at Cedar Rapids, received 1st place in Memorial Day Parade in Dubuque, and won 1st place at the Iowa State Fair Parade in Des Moines.

In addition to providing half-time entertainment at all home football games, the band also participated in homecoming festivities at the University of Wisconsin and the University of Dubuque.

Highlight of the year was the band's participation in the Annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City in November.
